Tomorrow is the Day of Silence! If you're participating, here are some things to know: --You should let your friends and teachers know today, so they're not surprised by your silence on Friday. --You do not have to buy merchandise to participate. --Talking cards (cards that explain your participation in this event), can be obtained from any GSA advisor (room 230, 226, or 130). --The vow of silence starts 1st hour and ends at the final bell. --Your role is student first, activist second. That means, you must still be an active participant in your education and a part of your class activities. --There will be a brief "Breaking the Silence" event, a moment of noise, right after school in room 130. Please take part in this short, fun, and important event. --There will be a "Breaking the Silence" party for participants on Monday during both lunches in room 230. Participants can share their experiences, debrief, and brainstorm ideas for future events.	9-12	Holden-Kaufman 4/26
