If you helped GSA's postcard campaign and still have some postcards, please return them to the orange bin on the book return table in the commons area ASAP. We know there are a few sets still out there. If you haven't gotten to fill them out, it's okay--GSA just needs them back. Thanks to each of those who donated time and creativity!

This week the GSA is sponsoring "Solidarity Week" to encourage you to stand up and speak out in support of your fellow Spartans who hold marginalized identities. During lunch each day this week, you'll be able to sign a banner and pick up a rainbow ribbon to show your allyship and pride. Please bring your own pen or marker to sign the banner, which will be on a table near the end of the lunch line/kitchen exit.
