For 15 years, one or more scholarships for post-secondary education have been awarded to students of color from the Duluth/ Superior area. These scholarships are awarded in memory of the Reverend Arthur Foy III who served as pastor of St. Mark AME. Reverend Foy died in a tragic car accident in 2004.

This year applications for the Arthur Foy Scholarship as well as reference forms can be filled out and submitted online. Downloadable forms are also available and can be sent in by mail. Student applicants need to submit an essay of no more than 500 words, a copy of their transcript, and a letter of reference. Forms as well as additional information can be found at <https://www.peaceucc.org/rev-arthur-foy-iii-scholarship/>

The deadline for applications is May 1. Awards up to $1000 will be announced in early June. Please encourage likely candidates to apply. In addition, pass this information on to others who might know of students interested in this opportunity. For further information, email foyscholar@gmail.com

Boys interested in Golf should know the season will start April 19th, please email me at brad.larson@superior.k12.wi.us. Also, Nemadji driving range is looking to open Friday April 2nd, and the Golf Course opening by April 9th.

Interact Club is hosting Power to the Shower - a personal hygiene drive to collect much needed items for the clothing closet here and a SMS. Ideas to donate - toothbrushes, toothpaste, shampoo, body wash etc. Bags have been delivered to each Advisory classroom so you can donate throughout the month of April. The Advisory class that collects the most will earn an ice cream treat in May. Thank you, Interact Club
