This week's Business Lunch Partner will be Enbridge. North America's largest energy infrastructure company, Enbridge operates the world's longest crude oil and liquids transportation system. Here in Wisconsin, Enbridge has been an industry leader in the safe transit and storage of energy since 1949. We deliver 2.9 million barrels of crude oil every single day. In Superior and Duluth, nearly 300 employees work for Enbridge as engineers, welders, electricians, mechanics, lawyers, accountants, and numerous other jobs to keep our system of pipelines operating safely. Stop by the table in the Commons at lunch Wednesday to learn more.	9-12	Anderson 2/27
